

DEATH, INJURY AND DREADFUL DAMAGE

BY LIGHTING

James Emerson And Two Horses
Were Killed.

WHILE WORKING IN HAY FIELD
THURSDAY EVENING.

WAS RIDING ON BIG HAY RAKE

Trying to Get in the Hay Before the Storm When a Blinding Flash Came Causing Death.

Granville, O., July 5.—One of the saddest and most deplorable accidents that ever happened in this part of the country, occurred on Thursday evening on the farm of Mr. James Emerson, about two miles north of this place, on Loudon street. Mr. Emerson together with his nephew, Sworn Spidell, and his cousin, Burt Johnson, were engaged at work in the hay field, getting in the crop of hay, when a big storm came up, which was accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning. Mr. Emerson was riding on a big hay rake, driving a team of horses at the time, and was working industriously to get in the hay before the storm. Suddenly a flash of lightning more blinding than any that had preceded it, zigzagged across the horizon, and Mr. Emerson pitched forward, falling on the tongue of the rake, between the horses, which were instantly killed. Probably five or six minutes before the other men who were working in a different part of the field noticed that something was wrong. They hurried to the assistance of Mr. Emerson and were horrified to find that he as well as both the horses were dead, all having been instantly killed by the lightning. The alarm was immediately sounded and in an incredibly short time a number of the neighbors were on the scene. Some of them hastened to the house and gently broke the news to Mrs. Emerson, who was immediately prostrated by the sudden and horrible news. A physician was immediately sent for and Dr. Thompson of this place responded, and did all that he could to relieve and comfort the grief-stricken one.

An examination that the back of Mr. Emerson's neck was slightly burned where he had been struck by the lightning, but there was no other mark or abrasion on his body except a small bruise on his forehead, probably sustained by his striking his head against the tongue of the rake when he fell. A curious thing in connection with the work of the lightning was that several coins that Mr. Emerson had in his pockets had been melted and run together, forming a solid mass, while in another pocket a silver dollar that was intact before the storm, was found with a hole through it.

The deceased, who was aged 32 years, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Darius Emerson, who reside near Concord. He was a young man who possessed the friendship and good will of all who knew him, and his death will be greatly deplored. Besides his aged parents, he leaves two sisters to mourn his death. They are Mrs. Frank Miles of San Francisco, Cal., and Mrs. Burton Johnson. They all have the sympathy of the entire community in their great afflictions, especially the young widow, who is bowed down with grief.

The funeral took place this morning at 1 o'clock at Concord, and the remains were interred in the cemetery at that place.

DAMAGE AT WILKIN.

Wilkin, July 5.—The storms of the past few days have been the worst ever experienced in this section. The rain storm in the memory of the oldest of the heavy rains, and it is impossible now to estimate the damage.

The water ran through Edwards' woods in torrents, resembling a big river, everything in its path being washed away.

Caused By a Series of Storms Which Threatened Newark For Hours Thursday Evening.

While This City Escaped, Points All About Newark Were Heavy Sufferers.

STORM KILLED MAN NEAR GRANVILLE

And Caused Serious Injury of Man East of Newark---Frightful Washouts at Hanover, Black Hand, Wilkins, Utica and Zanesville---Train Service Abandoned.

For several hours late Thursday afternoon and early Thursday evening Newark was threatened with a series of frightful thunderstorms but all spent their fury more or less remote from this city. Only a few drops of water fell in Newark, though at times the heavy black clouds, dazzling flashes of lightning and ponderous peals of thunder threatened to send down upon the city the most furious storm of years.

Frightful damage was done at Hanover, only eight miles east of Newark. Wilkin, in northeastern Licking county, Black Hand, Utica, and western Licking county all suffered by the storm while railway traffic on the B. & O. running north and east and the Pan Handle from Newark east was entirely stopped. One man, James Emerson was killed by lightning in western Licking county and another, Thomas Burns, whose horses were frightened by a vivid flash of lightning was badly mangled. Other less serious accidents are reported while the property loss is heavy.

The wind blew a gale and the rain fell in sheets, converting the roads and ditches into torrents of running water, and causing lakes to form in fields and doing immense damage.

Mr. H. H. Goodin, the mail carrier, on the Star line between Long Run and Newark, was in the city on the Fourth, and says that no idea can be formed of the damage done. All roads from Long Run to Wilkins' Corners for a distance of over eight miles have been washed out, and will require an immense amount of work to repair them. The Swisher Bridge, near Wilkin's Run, which is quite a large structure, was washed out together with the abutments, and the bridge is now lying in the field a distance of 200 yards from its original location. Where the wheat has not been cut it has been badly washed away, while numberless shocks of wheat are floating down the streams and the farmers could be seen at different points along the streams fishing out the shocks. It was the worst storm in its effect that has visited the northeastern part of the county for years. A saw mill near Wilkin was washed away only the heavy boiler remaining.

The railroads, however, were the greatest sufferers, the B. & O. especially, being very unfortunate from the fact that a number of the section men along the road are on a strike. The first washout on the B. & O. was reported from the vicinity of Norwich and New Concord, on the C. O. division, where it was reported that there were great gaps in the road bed and where it had not been washed out, bodily the ballast in many places had been carried away, and the ties undermined so as to make it folly to undertake the running of trains over the track without first having gone over miles of the road and carefully inspecting it.

Following this first report news was received by the officials at this point of washouts between St. Louisville and Utica, and then came reports of serious washouts all along the line of the Central Ohio division, which has the effect of throwing the officials almost into a panic.

At Black Hand still greater trouble was reported. Two trains, Nos. 8 and 112 were caught there and compelled to remain over night by washouts to the east and west of them. The wreck train was sent from Newark, but was stopped at the first washouts and the imprisoned trainmen and their passengers were compelled to make the best of their situation at Black Hand. Train 115 was also held up at Pleasant Valley.

Between Black Hand and Zanesville over one mile of track was washed out, and from the "Z B" tower, just east of Zanesville, the track was washed out in many places, averaging from 150 to 500 feet in places.

At Black Hand the force of the water was so great that a train of eight cars, in charge of Conductor David Murphy, which were being taken to the mines, swept over into a field for a distance of one hundred yards, the tracks having been washed out.

A report was received here early on Friday morning, that the water was running through the Cambridge tunnel but that no damage was done.

At the B. & O. depot here on Friday morning there was an anxious throng of waiting individuals who were hoping against hope for the passenger trains to pull out and take them on their long anticipated holiday trip. Some fifty or sixty uniformed Woodmen from Toledo, who had been stranded here seemed particularly anxious to reach their destination.

At an early hour in the morning, word was received that the damage to the tracks on the Lake Erie division, near St. Louisville, had been repaired, and the trains for the north pulled out amid great rejoicing.

It was finally decided to send train 46 to Zanesville over the Shawnee division via Junction City and the C. & M. V. railroad, and when the train pulled out a lusty cheer was given by the delayed passengers.

In the meantime the officers of the company were doing all they could to relieve the situation, and large numbers of workmen from the eastern division and the Chicago division were hurried to this point and sent to the scene of the washouts. There was a report that some of the striking section men at Zanesville had begun making arrangements to take advantage of the road's predicament, but it seems that there was not truth in the report, as the men who had been brought here to repair the damaged tracks were not interfered with.

MANGLED

In Frightful Manner By A Wheat Binder.

THOMAS BURNS THE VICTIM OF AN AWFUL ACCIDENT.

A BRILLIANT LIGHTNING FLASH

Preceding Thursday Evening's Big Storm Frightened Horses Which Ran—A Brother Shocked.

Thomas Burns, a prominent farmer of Madison township, living about three miles northeast of Newark, met with a terrible accident between 2 and 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, which may yet result fatally, and at best, will sadly cripple him for life.

Mr. Burns, who is about 40 years of age, was engaged in harvesting wheat with his brother, Benjamin, in a field about half a mile from the house. He was using a combination reaper and binder, and at the time of the accident was cutting on a hill where the wheat was light and did not clean readily from the front of the machine.

He sent his brother for a rake, and while he was gone the unfortunate man got down from his seat, went in front of the machine and began cleaning it with his hands.

Suddenly there was a blinding flash of lightning, and Ben, who had gotten about 50 yards from his brother, was knocked down and stunned. The horses were frightened and started to run away, catching Thomas in the machine on the cutting bar, directly in the path of the knives. The machine had not been tarred out of gear, and the knives revolved, cutting off Mr. Burns' right leg about six inches below the knee, and mangling the left about the ankle in a terrible manner. Burns was dragged by the runaway horses a distance of 200 yards, he being under the machine.

He managed, in some manner, to get out of his perilous position, and when his brother Ben, who had in the meantime recovered consciousness, got to him, he was holding the horses, which he had managed to stop. Ben helped him on one of the horses, and cruelly hurt as he was, the plucky man rode to the house, a distance of half a mile, where he was helped into the house, and Drs. W. H. Knauss and W. C. Rank of Newark were sent for.

The right leg which had been cut off was dressed, and attention was then given the left leg. The knives had cut through the bones, and the flesh was badly lacerated. The physicians fixed up this leg as best they could, setting the ends of the bone together, but they say there is only one chance in one hundred that the leg can be saved.

Dr. Knauss visited the patient Friday night, and found him resting as comfortably as possible. Thomas Kinsbury, an uncle of Mr. Burns, sat up with him Friday night, and said Saturday morning that he passed the night very well and was in the best of spirits.

MR. STASEL WAS IN IT.

Chas. E. Stasel, manager of the Newark Telephone company, was in Thursday evening's storm near Wilkin. He describes it as a deluge of water. Rain fell in sheets and Rocky Fork stream rose in a few minutes to a torrent. Mr. Stasel says he crossed the stream near Wilkin before the heaviest rain fell and at that time he was forced to wade 150 yards in water almost up to his waist before reaching the bridge. Many culverts were washed away and great damage was done to vegetation.

STORM AT MILLERSBURG. Millersburg, O., July 5.—A heavy electrical and hail storm Thursday night did extensive damage over the county. Grain just ready for harvesting suffered the most.

WITH HIS TOE.

Sergeant Malhein Touched the Trigger and Killed Himself This Morning.

Columbus, O., July 5.—Sergeant Nils Malhein committed suicide at the barracks here this morning by placing his mouth over the end of a Krag-Jorgensen rifle and touching the trigger with his toe. The bullet passed through his head and lodged in the ceiling of his room. He had $1300 in his possession and intended to go back to Norway next month when his term of enlistment expired. Despondency was the cause of the suicide.

COLORED GIRL ACQUITTED.

Springfield, O., July 5.—Iona Chancellor, alias Turner an aged 13, was acquitted of the charge of manslaughter. She was charged with poisoning her foster mother, Mrs. George Turner.

Mayor Jones Ill.

W. M. HAHN SEEKS SAFETY IN THE COUNTY JAIL.

Mansfield, O., July 5.—Ex-State Insurance Commissioner W. M. Hahn will go to jail next Monday to remain until the grand jury meets in September in order to prevent arrest by officers from New York and removal to New York for trial there. It has been found impracticable to remain at large further in the custody of the Chief of Police of Mansfield.

INJURIES

FROM ACCIDENTS ON FOURTH OF JULY NUMBER 2172

While at Least Twenty-One People Were Killed by Celebrating the Day of Independence.

Chicago, July 5.—Celebration of Independence Day in Chicago was costly in loss of life and resulted in many accidents of a serious nature. Five dead and others reported as dying till the list of fatalities while the injured are as legion.

Figures from all of the larger and many of the smaller cities of the country show that 21 persons were killed, 2,172 injured. The toy pistol and cannon cracker are as usual responsible for the greater part of the casualties. Philadelphia heads the list with a total of 179 injured.

New Orleans on the contrary reported not one accident of any kind and the report was that less than $200 had been spent on fire works for this year's celebration.

ANDREE

WAS UNDOUBTEDLY KILLED BY ESQUIMOS.

Missionary Who Reaches Winnipeg Confirms the Story of His Death. Relics Were Found.

Winnipeg, Man., July 5.—Rev. Richard Fether, an aged missionary at Fort Churchill, who has arrived in this city states definitely that relics of Dr. Andree were brought to Hudson Bay post three weeks after his disappearance, June 1. He says: "The story sent out by Factor Alston two years ago, was undoubtedly correct. Andree and his companions undoubtedly were killed by a fierce tribe of Esquimos between 200 and 300 miles northwest of our post. Esquimos sent out to confirm the first news of Andree's death returned to the Fort not only with two pipes, but parts of the scientific instruments that Andree was supposed to carry with him."

ELECTRIC CARS DASH DOWN MOUNTAIN SIDE WITH AWFUL RESULTS

Eleven Killed Outright, Several Fatally Wounded and Fifty Hurt.

Casualty Occurred Late Friday Night Near Gloversville, New York.

CARS LOADED WITH PLEASURE SEEKERS

Came Together With Terrific Velocity and Left the Track on a Curve Crushing Scores of People in the Debris---

List of Dead and the Injured.

Gloversville, N. Y., July 5.—A frightful electric car accident late last night killed eleven people outright, wounded several fatally and hurt 50 people seriously. An open car was coming down the mountain, followed by a closed car, which ran away, and plunged into the open car and both raced down the mountain till a sharp curve was reached when the open car left the track and was wrecked crushing scores under the debris.

After the cars struck the curve it was but a matter of a very few seconds before the open car left the track and pitched forward on its side hurling some passengers to their death by crushing them under the side of the car, maiming others for life and causing scenes of agony which were terrible in the extreme. In the death throes of the passengers and the terrible sufferings to which the injured were subjected some scenes occurred which show that heroes are found on other places than the battlefield, as men who were pinned beneath the weight of the overturned car lay there for over an hour and never made a murmur or complained of their sufferings.

THE PEOPLE AND THE TRUSTS.
There has never before been such an argument against the Trusts as the beet sugar lobby has made. It has taken the Republican party by the throat, compelled it to turn down McKinley and Roosevelt, to repudiate its platform pledges and to break faith with the Cuban Republic. The advocates of this dishonest could not have accomplished their object if their open attack had not been secretly abetted by all the other plundering Trusts that are permitted by tariff favor to pick the pockets of the people of the United States. If the sugar monopoly were to be distributed by reciprocal trade arrangements with Cuba, they argued it would be an entering wedge for further movement toward commercial emancipation. This plea was effective. Congress has ended its sitting, and rather than even clip the fringe of the garment of Dingleyism the country has been put to open shame.

Senator Hanna was right in his declaration in the Senate on Monday last when he intimated that the coming Congressional election would give the voters an opportunity to be heard from in regard to this reciprocity business in unmistakable terms. It is not so much a question whether Roosevelt shall be sustained, or whether the suffering people of Cuba shall be helped, as whether the nation shall be governed by the monsters who have managed to get their representatives elected to Congress and who from that point of advantage dictate the policy of the Government.

There is an adage that when kings build carters thrive, and the same is true of Republicans, which have Congressmen instead of kings. What contracts and jobbery there will be under the appropriations of this billion dollar session of Congress! The New York Sun, which is no great stickler for economy when it comes to Republican expenditure, has recently pointed out that in the Public Buildings bill three towns of Kansas and Nebraska, which together contain not many more than 10,000 inhabitants and which have hardly increased 1000 since the census of 1890, receive appropriations of $300,000. There are other cases in this budget of logrolling and architectural expenditure. By such way only could the appropriation of the session have been swollen to nearly a billion dollars.

In its final revision the Philippine act does not adequately protect the natives from the exploitation of their lands by speculators. The reduction of the amount of land which agricultural corporations may hold from 5000 to 2000 acres will not prevent the organization of a gigantic and ruthless land monopoly, since it will be as easy for any number of these corporations to combine as it is to form a Trust in this country.

THE ROOSEVELT FAILURES.

In some respects the results of the session of Congress just adjourned, were a decided snub for President Roosevelt. The Philadelphia Record groups a list of the important measures he recommended to Congress with much earnestness, not one of which has become a law. These important measures are as follows, and their defeat is accepted as an indication of a purpose of the Republican leaders to destroy the prestige of the President, in a concrete effort to defeat his recommendations. Mr. Roosevelt's failures are as follows:

Commercial reciprocity with Cuba. Reciprocity treaties, with a vague reference to the unconsidered treaties of McKinley's administration; Legislation upon the trusts, with a view especially to securing publicity of their financial condition; Legislation for preventing the crimes of anarchism; A militia law to secure and discipline a volunteer force so as to make unnecessary a large increase of the standing army in the event of war; Amendment of the immigration laws; Reorganization of the consul system, and the creation of a department of commerce.

FIRST REGIMENT

Preparing to Come to Camp on the State Ground July 14—Orders issued at Cincinnati.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

The first regiment order for the encampment of the First Regiment on the state encampment grounds at Newark, Ohio, from July 14 to 21 was issued Thursday by Colonel W. E. Bundy.

The several local companies are ordered to assemble at the Freeman-street armory at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night, July 13. The regiment will leave later in the night for the camp, and on its way will pick up the up-state companies. Major H. A. Russ, of Hillsboro, has been detailed as Surgeon to the local regiment, and Captain J. H. McReady, of this city, and F. G. Leighton of Sabina, as Assistant Surgeons. Sigmund Fritsch, of Norwood, has been appointed Hospital Steward, and Sergeants McCabe and Edwards, of Company B, Color bearers.

The advance detail for the camp will leave next Thursday night. Major Wm. R. Reynolds will have charge of the party. It will consist of two privates from each company and a party of civilian cooks. The detail will look after the placing of the tents and provide for provisions during the encampment. Lieutenant Colonel Edward Lovell has been designated as Field Court Officer.

The forming of three battalions was completed Thursday. The first will be in command of Major John Proctor and will consist of Companies A, B, and C, of this city, and H, of Lebanon second, Major W. M. Sullivan commanding, Company F, of Wilmington; D, of Hillsboro, and L, of Middletown third, Major Charles F. Hake, Jr., commanding, Companies I and G, of this city, and E, of Sabina. The quarterly report of the regiment, issued yesterday shows that on March 31 it consisted of 462 enlisted men and officers and at present it has 592 men divided into 10 companies, with a band of 35 pieces.

AMUSEMENTS.

A good bill at the casino at Idlewild Park is in store for the visitors at that beautiful resort next week. The first number is the well known banjo player and dancer, Ed L. Bailey, who will entertain the audience with a few pleasing selections. The popular coon singer, Mr. Chas. M. Stewart, has been secured by the management and will appear at each performance.

A charming vaudeville review which is interesting in the extreme, is presented by Vio and Searle, who will introduce a number of singing and juggling sketches. The Ramsey sisters, better known as the merry musical maidens, are also on the bill of the coming week. Edna Burnett has a good contra-tenor voice and sings very sweetly several coon songs and ballads.

The last number on this excellent bill is Ralph Post and Essie Clinton in a grotesque comedy sketch. Don't miss this act for it is good.

GOV. NASH.

HIS POLICE BOARD SCHEME AND THE EXTRA SESSION.

The Governor and Two Lawyers to Fix Up a Municipal Code at Put-in-Bay.

Columbus, July 5.—The people of Ohio will witness a remarkable spectacle next week—that is they would witness it if they could peek through the keyhole of a certain room at the Hotel Victory at Put-in-Bay. They would discover within the governor of Ohio, in conference with one lawyer from Cincinnati, and another from Cleveland, framing a municipal code in a great hurry to have the job finished in time to be submitted to Hanna, Foraker and Cox before going to the legislature in extra session. Outside the room where the star-chamber meeting is being held will be a swarm of lawyers in attendance upon the annual convocation of the Ohio State Bar Association. There will not be a business man within forty miles, or, if there is, he will not be permitted to approach the sanctum sanctorum. The code, when finished, will be strictly the product of lawyers and politicians. Any person having experience in municipal affairs, or any business man of more hard sense than legal learning, will not be consulted in its preparation. The primary scheme is not to provide a practical working system for Ohio municipalities, but, first, to satisfy the personal demands of the Republican politicians, and, second, to draw up an instrument that will hold water—when the supreme court turns the hose on it. The whole thing will be done behind closed doors on an island far removed from the interests to be affected and without a hearing accorded any duly constituted representative of the people except the governor and the two senators.

When the child of bossism and impracticability thus nurtured is able to stand alone it will be sent toddling to Uncle Mark for an approving pat on the head. Thus it will be passed along to George B. Cox, who will tickle it under the ribs and take notes of its contortions for future reference. Then if it has good luck, it will pay a visit to J. B. Foraker. After these three worthies have concluded their examination, if there is anything left of the offspring, it will be sent to the legislature.

Here the greatest iniquity of the whole program will be enacted. The municipal code bill is not to go before the extra session for full and free discussion. It is to be submitted to a Republican caucus and then rushed through as a party measure. Republican apposition to it will be stifled by the methods so often and so skillfully employed by the managers of that party in this state, and following this achievement the Democratic minority will be denied the right to the fullest consideration and it will be placed on the statute books, there to remain until some other legislature abolishes or amends it, or until the supreme court declares it a bunch of nonsense, like most of the other work of the Seventy-fifth general Assembly. In the absence of a change in the constitution, which can only be obtained by a constitutional convention called to meet in 1905, there can be no permanent guarantee of home rule to the cities of Ohio. Even a just code would work only temporary relief from present conditions, and in view of the methods by which this legislation is to be framed and enacted, there is not much hope of this small comfort.

One startling proposition to be embodied in the new code is that the Governor shall have power to appoint alleged bi-partisan police boards for all the cities in the state, thus throwing into his hands a vast machine for such operations as may be deemed expedient in the realm of "practical politics." But it is assured that the governor will be bitterly opposed by some members of his own party if he attempts this, and a compromise is suggested, to allay public indignation, under which the council of any city may adopt the police board system and voluntarily make the governor the appointive power. The whole scheme, whether it assumes this form or the original and more arbitrary one, owes its existence to the desire of George B. Cox to retain his control of the police force of Cincinnati.

A Trip up the Lakes.

As many of our people are thinking of spending a few weeks away from the cares and trials of business it is but proper to suggest that lake outing is the cheapest, most healthful, and altogether the most delightful of all. This truth has been widely spread over the land, largely by printers' ink, but principally by the multitude who have personally tested the plan and who praised it far and wide. In this connection it is but proper to say that the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation company has just issued a neat little pamphlet and time table, replete with information on all questions of travel on the lakes, giving complete time tables of the arrival and departure of boats from all points, together with brief descriptions of all the pleasure resorts, the hotels, rates, etc. To parties contemplating a trip up the lakes they should secure one of the D. & C. Time-Table books, and they can do so by calling on Frank Bartholomew, the B. & O. ticket agent.

WHY PHYSICIANS FAIL

To Cure Many Cases of Female Ills. Some Sensible Reasons Why Mrs. Pinkham is More Successful Than Many Family Doctors.

A woman is sick—some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds back something, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and this completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it a wonder, therefore, that the doctor fails to cure the disease? Still we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician. This is the reason why hundreds of thousands of women are now in correspondence with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. To her they can give every symptom, so that when she is ready to advise them she is in possession of more facts from her correspondence with the patient than the physician can possibly obtain through a personal interview.

Following we publish a letter from a woman showing the result of a correspondence with Mrs. Pinkham. All such letters are considered absolutely confidential by Mrs. Pinkham, and are never published in any way or manner without the consent in writing of the patient; but hundreds of women are so grateful for the health which Mrs. Pinkham and her medicine have been able to restore to them that they not only consent to publishing their letters, but write asking that this be done in order that other women who suffer may be benefited by their experience.

Here is Proof of the Value of Mrs. Pinkham's Advice.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been taking your medicine for two months and write to you for some advice concerning it. I am in very poor health and have been for nearly three years. I am troubled with a pain and soreness in the back of my head and neck, which develops into an almost unbearable headache at time of menstruation. Since last August I have been confined to my bed a great part of the time. In January I was taken very sick with one of my awful headaches, and lay for five weeks in a critical condition. Our doctors were unable to tell me the cause of my illness. I had a slow fever seemingly in my nerves with a marked bilious affection. I was completely prostrated. My physician did nothing for me but to put me to sleep, said it was the condition of my nerves at the time of menstruation. I was advised to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and would like your advice and to know the cause of my bad feelings."—Mrs. FRANCES I. McCREA, Sheridan, Mont. (April 27, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to testify that I have been greatly benefited by the use of your medicine. After taking four bottles I felt better, my head and neck were greatly relieved. After reading the testimonies in the book you sent me, I believed that I had a tumor, and a while after when something the size of an egg passed from me, I was convinced of the fact. I now feel like a new creature, can go to my work, and can eat and sleep well, a privilege that I appreciate very much."—Mrs. FRANCES I. McCREA, Sheridan, Mont.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published without obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some Newark People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers. You can't separate them. And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache. If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

Mrs. John Goodwin, No. 8 Meyer street, says: "My back was so painfully troublesome that I could neither sit, stand or lie down, with any comfort. It was the first time that I had anything wrong with my kidneys and happening to see Doan's Kidney Pills endorsed locally and the description of the trouble so coincided with mine I sent to Crayton's drug store and got a box. After I had been using them a short time I felt that I was improving. My back finally got well so that before long I was able to be around again."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THREE ZANESVILLE DEATHS.
Zanesville, O., July 5—Wm. Lommon's child whose foot was hurt on stubbles by falling from a tree, died of lockjaw near Sonora.

Mrs. W. C. McConaughy died this morning. She did not recover from the shock of her husband's death which occurred suddenly last Sunday.

BUCKEYE LAKE DEAL.

The Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark traction company has purchased the Newark and Granville electric line, thus shelving the prospect of an electric line from Newark to Columbus via Pataskala. It is thought by some however, that the Granville line may be continued to Alexandria, thence to Jersey, Pataskala, Etta and on to Lancaster via Basil and Baltimore. This is a remote possibility.—Pataskala Standard.

LOST A HORSE.

Summit Station, O., July 5—Frank Patrick lost a valuable horse one day last week. He was engaged in harrowing a field and a son of Mr. George Owens was engaged in driving the team for him. In some manner the harrow was turned over, striking the horses on the heels, and causing them to run away. The boy held onto the lines, but was unable to stop the team which attempted to jump across a deep ditch. They, however, failed to accomplish the feat, and fell backward on the teeth of the harrow, badly injuring a valuable gray mare. A veterinary surgeon was called, but upon examining the animal, it was found that the wound inflicted by the sharp teeth of the harrow had penetrated to the depth of six or more inches, and she died several days afterward.

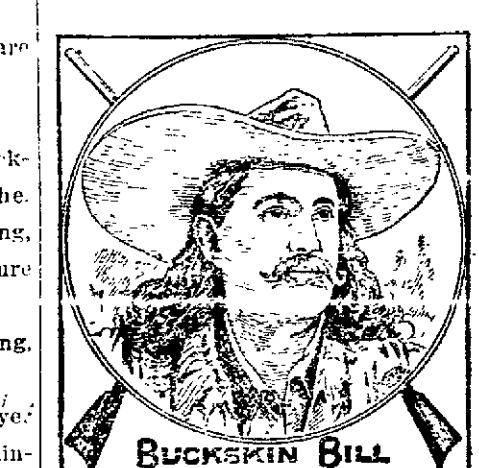

Mr. and Mrs. David McIntosh have been visiting relatives in Union and Hardin counties.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Zanesville, O., July 5—Miss Ollie Price of this city and Mr. Nelson Coulter of Skye, Washington, were married this morning. The wedding was held in St. James Episcopal church, Rev. F. W. Dope officiating. The courtship has been quite out of the ordinary and verges into the romantic. Several years ago Mr. Coulter saw Miss Price's picture at the home of an mutual friend. He was interested in the picture and expressed a desire to know the young lady. The mutual friend arranged a correspondence. Mr. Coulter joined the regular army and was sent to the Philippines. The correspondence was kept up during his service there. Last October his enlistment having expired he left the army and located in the west. Last Wednesday he came to Zanesville for the purpose of meeting Miss Price personally. He was so favorably impressed with the young lady as he had been with her picture and the meeting resulted in this morning's marriage. Their future home will be in Skye, Wash.

EAST END'S BIG FOURTH.

Splendid Program Carried Out Without a Single Hitch.

Monster Industrial Parade Followed by Fantastics and Fun for Everybody—Contests Amusing and Interesting—Two Good Ball Games—Notes of the Day.

"East Newark against the World" was the slogan that inspired the monster demonstration given in that section Friday in honor of the Nation's birthday, and from early morning until late at night East Main street from Webb street east was a scene of busy, joyous activity.

There was nothing left undone to make the celebration a great success, and that it was due to the untiring efforts of George Fromholtz, and all others who were connected with the management of the day's exercises.

All day the crack of pistols, the pedoes, and other noise makers was heard, and this feature had its culmination by the grandest display of fireworks ever given in the city, at the corner of East Main and Cedar streets, under the supervision of George Ritter, and a corps of assistants.

The morning parade was a grand pageant and the gaily decorated wagons, gaudily caparisoned horses and tastily gowned children in open floats, made up a scene of brilliancy and color that was an enjoyable sight.

The Industrial Parade formed in the vicinity of Mohlenpaugh's ice house east of Webb street, and is by the Buckeye Band moved promptly at 10 o'clock over the following line of march: East to Allen street, north to Allen to Main street, west on Main to "Brooklyn Bridge," where the countermarched to Buena Vista street, north on Buena Vista to Indiana street, north on Indiana to Cedar street, south on Cedar to Florence street, east on Florence to Penny avenue, south on Penny avenue to Andover street, west on Andover street to Cedar street, south on Cedar to Tuscarora street, east on Tuscarora to Oakwood avenue, south on Oakwood avenue to Main street, west on Main and disbanded. For the best display a prize of $2 was given to Arthur Baldwin, for his fine display of flowers, the second prize, $2, was awarded to Westbrook the grocer, and the third prize, $1, to Redman & Co. grocers.

The parade was in charge of Grand Marshal George Fromholtz, assisted by Will Donaldson, Pat Phelan, Arthur Westbrook, David Bland and others. The Jewett car works mounted a street car on wagon trucks, and set it over, drawn by four horses. This car got there too late for the parade but was lustily cheered along the route, as it showed the company's good feeling toward the celebration. The order of march was as follows: Grand Marshal Fromholtz; of residents of East Newark in Lippincott's carriages; East End Fire department; Citizens in carriages, boys and girls in wagons and floats, Bourn's XX beer; Redman's grocery; Plaine's department store; Pratt & Montgomery, Jackson wagons, Wesley Montgomery, agent; Fantastic float; John Welsh, grocer, E. E. Merrick, painter, John Eaton, grocer; Hostetter's brewery, J. H. Levinger, grocer; Baldwin's green house, J. C. Brown; Metz Brothers meats; Will Donaldson, oil; Louis Jeffries, ice cream; Consumers Brewery, Ben McCracken, painter, G. L. Miller florist; B. L. Evans, meats; Phelan, grocer; Westbrook, grocer; J. Renz, baker; Mike Tyrer, pop and mineral waters; Fink & Co. commission merchants; T. J. Irwin, contractor; C. C. Beckman, "Texas" grocer, East Side Pharmacy, Linehan Bros., C. E. Brickle, meats, carriage advertising; American Protective Union's basket picnic at Idlewild, July 17.

Many of the displays were artistic and displayed good taste and hard work. Two base ball games were played in the afternoon, reported elsewhere. The Fantastic parade also formed in the vicinity of the ice house and led by the Buckeye Band, moved promptly at two o'clock over the same line of march as that of the Industrial Parade of the forenoon. For the best display a prize of $5 was given to the fantastic automobile, with A. Little Chaffeur, Wash. Barrett and Jim Cooper, passengers. The second prize of $2 went to the "Fantastic Band," Al. Donaldson, leader, while David Metz was given third prize, $1.

A report of the two ball games is published in the sporting columns of this paper.

The contests resulted as follows:

The fatman's race, 100 yards, was won by George Fromholtz. Prize, $1.

The little girls' race 100 yards, was won by Edith Buckingham. Prize $1.

The greased pig was won by a negro boy named Billy.

The potato race was won by James Hussion. Prize $1. and potatoes.

Baldy Prior won first prize in the greased pole, John Sullivan, second prize, $3 and $1.

The wheelbarrow race was won by Joe Smallwood. Prize $1.

The sack race was won by Willie Prior. Prize $1.

The boys' 100-yards race was won by Ernest Hinton. Prize, $1.

At seven o'clock the lawn at Cedar and East Main streets was crowded with people who viewed the fireworks and listened to patriotic addresses by Rev. W. M. Acton, W. A. Irvine and Charles Montgomery.

The dance given at Driscoll's hall was a success under the management of Jack Woolles. The Solid Four furnished the music.

The committee wish to thank everyone who co-operated in making East Newark's Fourth of July celebration of 1902 the grand success that it was.

RECEPTION

Given to Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Higginbotham at Plymouth Church—Well Remembered

The members and friends of Plymouth Congregational church gave to their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Higginbotham, a farewell reception on Thursday evening. The threatening weather prevented many from attending but there was a goodly number present, and altogether the occasion was a pleasant one. Rev. A. E. Johnson of the First Methodist church, Rev. H. N. Miller of the Church of Christ, and Rev. J. C. Schindel of the English Lutheran church spoke words commending the work of Mr. Higginbotham, after which Mr. John W. Ancker on behalf of the church presented to Mr. Higginbotham a beautiful gold watch and to Mrs. Higginbotham some china as tokens of the church's appreciation of their service and love for them. The church is sorry to lose Mr. Higginbotham and wishes him success in his new field of labor. The closing service will be held Sunday evening when new members will be received and some baptisms, after which the communion will be taken. All the members of the church and friends are cordially invited.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Near Appleton With Large Attendance
An Interesting Program Published Below in Full.

A grand and successful Fourth of July Sunday school picnic was held on Friday in Trotter's beautiful grove, two miles east of Appleton, the Sunday Schools of the Wesley M. E., Liberty M. E., Licking, the Homer Presbyterian, the Highwater M. E., and the Sunday schools of Appleton, embracing the townships of Bennington, Burlington, Liberty and McKean, all participating. The management of the affair was under the excellent supervision of Willis Shipley, superintendent of the Wesley Sunday school. A very large crowd filled the grove, and a platform and seats had been erected to accommodate all. The entire affair was a perfect success. In addition to the sweet singing by the various Sunday schools, stirring music was furnished by the Lock Cornet band. Arthur Wyeth read the Declaration of Independence, and Judge E. M. P. Brister of this city, was the orator of the day, the subject of his address being "Piety and Patriotism." Following is the interesting program:

The dinner that was served so bountifully at noon was a truly sumptuous one and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The large old flag that hung over the front of the speakers' stand, has some interesting historical connections. It was purchased forty years ago, in 1862 in the dark days of the Civil war, by a collection taken up by ex-County Commissioner Henry Shipley then a young man. It was bought at Columbus by Mr. Daniel Hobart, then a prominent business man of Appleton. Mr. Hobart and most of the contributors to the flag fund, have passed away, but Mr. Shipley remains bright and active, and the old flag still waves in proud greeting.

BIG CROWD

Saw and Enjoyed the Fire Works Display Given by South Siders on Tuesday Evening.

The fire works given in the South End by the business men of that section of the city were a grand success and a very large crowd of thoroughly pleased people witnessed the display.

"DR." DOWIE'S SPEECH.

Chicago, July 5.—Dowie ridiculed the Declaration of Independence and prohibited the firing of fireworks at Zion City. "The statement in the Declaration of Independence that all men are equal is a lie. The blacks never were nor are they now our equal. Now, for instance, you are not my equals are you?"

"No," was the feeble answer from the congregation.

"If you were I could not lead you," said Dowie.

Evansville, Ind., July 5.—Mrs. Murray Brown, aged 80, while sitting in her home Friday reading the Declaration of Independence, fell over dead.

LODGE NEWS

B. P. O. E.

Newark Elks. If there be any who did, need not worry themselves longer about the National home, for Hon. Meade D. Detweiler, of Harrisburg, Pa., the past-grand exalted ruler, made the announcement Wednesday that the matter is closed, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge at Salt Lake City in August.

As chairman of the home committee of the Elks, he announced that he had just purchased the Bedford hotel at Bedford, Va., for a home for aged and indigent Elks. The hotel cost nearly $100,000 and is large enough to accommodate 200 persons. The story of the purchase is interesting and shows that determination wins out. The arrangements for the sale were about completed, but when the receiver of the property heard that it was to be sold to the Elks he raised the price, and the sale was then declared off. Later when it was sold at public auction Mr. Detweiler had an agent bid the property in at the former price. Bedford, where the "home" is located is between Roanoke and Lynchburg on the Norfolk and Western rail road, and is a quiet and pretty place. The site is high, overlooking the town.

Odd Fellows

The commander of the Ohio Department of the Patriarchs Militant of the Odd Fellows, John C. Whittaker has announced that his resignation will take effect July 7, immediately after the close of the state convention of that order which will be held in Dayton.

The Odd Fellow says: "There are times in the life of every Odd Fellow that that are engraved on their memory and stand forth in their daily walks of life as a monument more lasting and more impressive than Bunker Hill or Washington's Monument. A brother related to us the following incident:

"A good many years ago, when I took the Second-degree in I. O. O. F., it impressed me with my duty to my fellow man as I had never been impressed before. Not many days afterward an enemy of mine was in sore distress (and by the way I was an enemy of his). When I saw his pitiable condition for a moment human nature made me to rejoice. It was in my power to relieve him; and for a few moments a great inward struggle went on.

"Right here the teachings of a few nights before came to me, and I asked myself 'Is he not, after all, my brother? I went to his relief. Oh, I made me feel so good. I have felt good over it ever since.

"Years have passed, but have not dimmed the joy of that occasion in the least. We are both growing old—no longer enemies, but warm personal friends. And in my mind I go back fifty-one years to that happy night when in an Odd Fellows Lodge I learned my duty to my fellow man. God be praised for the teaching of Odd Fellowship, and may it ever be like the tree planted by the river of life."

The Home of Peruna

The Hartman Sanitarium,
Columbus, Ohio.

As is well known, Dr. Hartman is the president of the Hartman Sanitarium, an institution which has a department devoted exclusively to the treatment of female diseases. He is thus brought to see thousands of such cases every year, the most of whom return to their homes to be treated by correspondence.

THE GREATEST OF AMERICA'S SANITARIUMS.

The principal remedy he relies upon in such cases is Peruna, which every woman should have, who has any affection of this kind.

In view of the great multitude of women suffering from some kind of female disease, and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned gynecologist, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as may make application to him during the summer months without charge.

The treatment will be conducted by correspondence. The doctor will prescribe all medicines, applications, hygienic and dietary regulations necessary to complete a cure. The medicines prescribed can be obtained at all drug stores. This offer will prevail during the summer months. Any woman can become a regular patient by sending a written statement of her age, condition of life, history and symptoms of her derangements.

All cases of female diseases, including menstrual irregularities, displacements, ulcerations, inflammations, discharges, irritation of the ovaries, tumors and dropsy of the abdomen, should apply at once and become registered as regular patients. All correspondence will be held strictly confidential. No testimonials of cures will be given to the public except by the express wish of the patient.

No one knows better than Dr. Hartman how much the women suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex. No one knows better than he does how many of them suffer with such diseases. Patiently, hopefully, wearily, and often silently, they eke out a miserable existence year after year.

A woman confined to the house several years with a chronic female derangement had finally given up all hope of being cured. She had tried physician after physician, and remedy after remedy, without any permanent improvement. Her treatment had cost her hundreds of dollars. They had been obliged to deny themselves many comforts of life in order to get money enough to pay the physicians.

Picking up the paper one day she happened to read an item which contained the news that Dr. Hartman would treat such cases free of charge by letter. She immediately wrote the doctor, describing her case, and giving him all her symptoms. She soon received a letter telling her exactly what to do and what medicines and appliances to get. She began the treatment (the principal remedy being Peruna) at once, and in a few weeks was well and strong again and able to do her own work.

Another woman who used Peruna without becoming one of Dr. Hartman's regular patients had the following experience.

ONE OF THE 200,000 WOMEN HELPED LAST YEAR.

Miss Ida Green writes from Baldwinville, Ga.:

"Peruna is wonderful and good, and a certain cure for female weakness. I have been ill and have been taking doctor's medicine for several years, and found that none did me any good.

"Every day it was a worry. I was always sick. I had come to the conclusion to give up, and not use any more medicine. I was sick indeed for the past two years. Just before I began to take Peruna I was very weak, besides I was bilious and constipated.

"I had pains in my back and side and falling of the womb, with bearing down pains.

"One day while reading my newspaper, I came across an ad., read of the book for women entitled, 'Health and Beauty,' and sent for it. Then I began to use Peruna. After using several bottles I am now thoroughly cured."

Mrs. Theresa Keller, of Fremont, Wash., writes:

"Peruna not only cured me of female trouble but prevents me catching any cold, and as long as I have a bottle in the house my family needs no doctor."

Eggs Were Marked.

Joseph Heimel, who lives one mile south of Union Station, has been missing eggs and chickens for some time and to set a trap Mr. Heimel has lately been marking the eggs so that they might be identified. A small pencil mark was placed on the end of each egg and then the eggs were put back into the nests. Suspecting a man named Grove, who lives in the same house, Mr. Heimel went before 'Squire Jones in Union township, and had a search warrant issued. It was put in the hands of Constable Hanby and Grove's apartments were searched. A shoe box partly filled with egg shells was found and it is said they were properly identified. A half chicken was found in the room. Grove has been keeping bachelor's hall. He was taken before 'Squire Jones, who assessed a small fine.

POST OFFICE

Receipts Show Big Increase Over Corresponding Month and Quarter Last Year—The Figures.

As the postoffice receipts of a town are an index to its prosperity and growth, the following figures from Postmaster Ickes are of interest: The receipts at the Newark office for June were $2,295.63, showing a gain of 33 per cent over last June, when the receipts amounted to $1,714.88. The receipts for the quarter show an increase over the corresponding quarter of last year of 31 per cent, the figures being $7,165.16 against $5,421.54 last year.

The Postmaster has made application for another carrier and as the figures warrant it and the constant growth of the city demands it, a new carrier will probably be allowed by the department at Washington. Newark is getting bigger and better every day.

IN THE FIELD OF SPORT

Two of the best games of base ball ever played in Newark were played at the new athletic grounds in East Newark, Fourth of July afternoon, in the presence of a large crowd, between the reorganized Newark team and the Columbus Southerners, one of the strongest teams in the Capital City.

The home team won both games, the first by good fielding and the second by Windsor's masterly pitching. In both games the fielding of the Newark team was a revelation, and on occasions sensational. In this respect Francis, who played short for Newark, was the bright particular star. Time and again he would jump in the air, run to either side or stoop and cut off apparently safe hits. At the bat too, he did well. His playing was vigorously applauded, and it well deserved to be. On one occasion he ran clear past third base and too, a foul fly from Whipple's bat that was truly marvelous. During the afternoon he accepted 17 chances without an error.

George Graeser in left field also did great work, especially in the second game. In the eighth inning of this contest with two out and two on bases, he ran to the fence and caught a line fly, retiring the side amid great applause.

Winters, the visitor's third baseman, was decidedly off in his throwing after making some hair raising stops of sizzling grounders. He fell down on four chances during the afternoon. But Winters is a ball player nevertheless, which cannot be truthfully said of Newark's third baseman Jones, if yesterday's second game is a criterion. He was directly responsible for the visitors two runs, having chances to retire the side before Shackle threw to the plate hitting Windsor in the head, allowing the runs to score. The men should not have been on bases had Jones played the game. It seems as if he can not think, which is a grievous and irreparable fault in a ball player. His one good point is that he can wait a pitcher out, but this is more than counterbalanced by his dumb play in the field.

Heisey played at first, and of course did well, as did Hedges, and the others. Merkle did good work in both games.

The first game was a pitcher's battle. Schneider pitched good enough ball to win nine times out of ten, but his game was lost by bases on balls and terrible errors. Shackle also pitched well but had a bad inning in the eighth, when Columbus by good hitting scored three runs.

Windsor should have had a shut-out to his credit, but for Jones' work on third.

Umpire Hughes was away off in his decisions, but was impartial in his poor work, both sides suffering in about equal measure. Hughes has a habit of arguing with the players which is tiresome to the spectators and loses him the control of the players.

Both games were played in three hours and twenty minutes. The tabulated scores of the games tell their own story:

BASE BALL GAMES.

The attendance in the National and American Leagues, at the Fourth of July games, shows that the people still love to see the great national game on the great National Holiday.

In 1901, 63,725 saw the National League games and 35,727 those in the American. Yesterday things were reversed and the American outdrew the National, 63,198 attending the contest in the former to 55,350 in the latter organization. The greatest fall off was in St. Louis. In 1901 with a strong team, 32,000 people saw the two games; yesterday 14,500.

MR. ADAMS EXPLAINS.

To the Patrons of Idlewild Park: I have made arrangements for a game of base ball to be played at Idlewild Park, July 4, between two of Zanesville's best teams, but owing to the storms, it was impossible on account of washouts on the B & O to get the teams to Newark in time for a game.

Thanking the good people of Newark for their patience and patronage, believe me yours,

Wm. J. Adams, Agent.

NOTES.

Art Francis who played short for Newark, umpired a number of the college games this summer at Greenville, where his work was absolutely perfect. He leaves Columbus today.

THE BRITISH MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Is crowded almost constantly with invalids seeking health. Three months' service are given free to all sufferers who call at its office at 100 W. Main street before July 14th.

A staff of eminent physicians and surgeons from the British Medical Institute have, at the urgent solicitation of a large number of patients under their care in this country, established a permanent branch of the Institute in this city, Flat 2 Avalon Flats, first floor, (west end entrance) 100 West Main street.

These eminent gentlemen have decided to give their services entirely free for three months (medicines excepted) to all invalids who call on them for treatment between now and July 14th. These services consist not only of consultation, examination and advice, but also of all minor surgical operations.

The object in pursuing this course is to become rapidly and personally acquainted with the sick and afflicted and under no conditions will any charge whatever be made for any services rendered for three months to all who call before July 14th.

The doctors treat all forms of disease and deformities, and guarantee a cure in every case they undertake. At the first interview a thorough examination is made, and, if incurable you are frankly and kindly told so, also advised against spending your money for useless treatment.

Male and female weakness, catarrh and catarrhal deafness, also varicose rupture, gonorrhea, cancer, the opium habit, and all diseases of the rectum, are positively cured by their new treatment.

The chief associate surgeon of the Institute is in personal charge.

Hours 9 to 8 Sundays, 10 to 1.

for Milwaukee, where he will open tomorrow, as an American Association umpire. His friends hope to see him make good, and it is thought he will. He is a thorough ball player knows the rules, and best of all is a perfect gentleman.

After Jones' error had left men on bases in the ninth inning of the second game, Inkrot was caught between second and third. While running him down Winters started to home from third. Shackle threw to the plate, but the ball struck Windsor in the head, a terrific blow. Windsor fell like he had been shot, but was not badly hurt.

Windsor gave a great exhibition of pitching in the third inning. Winters and Justice started with safe ones and made a double steal with third and second occupied and no outs, things looked equally. Windsor settled down. Merkle hit an easy fly and the next two men struck out.

Hunter brought down a storm of hisses when he threw his bat in front of Hedges on the third strike. The mute catcher was mad all over, and the crowd was with him. Had he been hit, Hunter would have been roughly handled.

Graeser's throw to the plate in the first game, cutting off a run, was perfect, coming to Hedges on a pretty bound. That is the way to throw from the outfield.

ACCIDENTS

THEY WERE NUMEROUS HERE ON THE FOURTH.

But None Proved Serious—Harry Rosebraugh is Recovering From the Burns—An Explosion.

The doctors report a great number of minor Fourth of July accidents, but in most cases they did not get the names of those who came for treatment.

Carl Swisher, son of John Swisher, had his right eye painfully burned, which injury Dr. W. H. Knauss attended. Nothing serious.

Harry Rosebraugh who was painfully burned Wednesday night, is reported as much better today by Dr. Knauss.

By an explosion of gasoline Friday evening the peanut roaster belonging to Billy Mansberger, was almost totally destroyed. John Horn who was tending the stand was severely burned on his left hand. The central department was called and extinguished the flames.

Robert Fisk, the little son of Mr.
Charles Fisk, while engaged in shooting cannon crackers at his home in the West End, on the Fourth, had one of his hands badly mangled by the premature explosion of one of the crackers.

A little boy, whose name could not be learned, had three fingers of his left hand badly mangled on Wednesday night by the premature explosion of a cracker. The accident happened near Newkirk's corner.

Faith.

A mother in one of the suburbs of New York, wishing to prepare the minds of her two children for a coming event of great importance, told them that if they would like to have a little brother or sister she thought if they prayed earnestly every night and morning God would send them one.

In due time the desired baby arrived, to the children's great delight and evidently to the strengthening of their faith, for the next day the father came into his wife's room, saying:

"Look here, Lizzie, this thing has got to stop. I just went into the parlor and found both those children on their knees praying as hard as they could for goats!"—New York Times.

Airy Persiflage at Sea.

The ship groaned.
But the giddy young thing who was talking to the captain was a good sailor and didn't mind a bit of rough weather.

"Doesn't it seem unnecessarily cruel, captain," she said, "to box a compass?"
"Not any more so, miss," he replied grimly, "than to paddle a canoe."
And the ship groaned some more.—
Chicago Tribune.

The Lucking Stroke.

"Do you think it would improve my style?" inquired the varsity man who had got into the crew through favoritism, "if I were to acquire a faster stroke?"
"It would improve the crew," replied the candid trainer, "if you got a paralytic stroke!"—Titt-Bits.

Too High.

"He has such high ideals!" she told her father.
"Yes," said the old gentleman,
"that's the trouble. Why couldn't you have been satisfied with a less expensive husband?"—Detroit Free Press.

sition than your neighbor, don't take credit to yourself. It may be that you are older.—Athenian Globe.
